

You're invited to be our guest at Data Strategy's Technology Exchange Session for

Women of Purpose

10.19.2011

Special Session

1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

DeVos Place
Grand Rapids, MI

Women know there is more to life than a career. Our guest presenter, JJ DiGeronimo from VMware, has developed Purposeful Woman to give women in technology a place to come together. Engage in conversation, learn new tools to make life more fulfilling and gather information to foster a balance between work and life.

For a complete agenda and to RSVP for JJ DiGeronimo's session, click the register today button below. Don't miss West Michigan's Virtualization Event of the year featuring many technology experts at this premiere technology event.

Questions, contact registration@data-strategy.com.
